EXTRAORDINARY RESOURCES AGREEMENT

Mass Gathering applicants, promoters and sponsors whose special events require the use of extraordinary County resources as a result of their anticipated attendance or heightened security concerns shall be required to pay for those extraordinary resources as required by ordinance or at the discretion of the Boise County Commissioners. Full cost recovery for extraordinary resources shall be required no later than 30 days following the conclusion of the mass gathering. Any extraordinary resources for which there are additional costs shall be solely dedicated to the mass gathering.

By my signature, I hereby acknowledge and certify under oath that the information provided is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, that I am authorized on behalf of my organization to enter into this agreement, and that I acknowledge my understanding of the aforementioned requirement concerning the payment for extraordinary resources and will pay an application fee if a full application is required.
