

RESOLUTION NO. 93-10

WHEREAS, the Boise County Board of Commissioners has considered the question of the County Prosecutor's maintenance of a private practice engaged in criminal defense and civil litigation.

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that the Boise County Prosecuting Attorney shall be limited to the representation of Boise County in civil and criminal matters, and shall also be limited to the representation of municipalities within the County on all matters, criminal and civil, to the extent that those matters do not conflict with the interests of Boise County. The Boise County Prosecuting Attorney shall not participate in or in any way be engaged in legal matters other than those enumerated above.

DATED this 14th day of June, 1993.
